

Rachael
Russell

NPQLBC Facilitator

Your Facilitator

Rachael trained as a teacher at the Institute of Education in London. She worked as an Executive Headteacher, and has lead the Tudor Grange Teaching School Hub as Director.

Rachael is proud to have lead a school from repetitive 'requires improvement' to 'good' in a short period of time whilst developing a staff team that has since secured sustained improvement.

Rachael is an accredited SENCo with a particular interest in SEMH provision. She supports schools outside of TGAT as an LLE and highly values collaborative working.

"I'm passionate about driving school improvement through collaboration and inclusive practice. Supporting staff to build sustainable success - especially in SEMH and SEN - has been one of the most rewarding aspects of my leadership journey."
