

EXCELLENCE IN RECEPTION TEACHING

Who is it for?

This course is ideal for experienced reception teachers and teachers moving into a reception role who want to strengthen classroom practice, deepen their understanding of child development and improve outcomes for children at a vital stage in their education.

Please note, this course is not suitable for ECTs.

What is covered?

The course structure blends live online sessions with self-directed study across two terms, with ongoing mentor support and practical application covering:

- child development
- classroom practice and pedagogy
- inclusive practice
- effective partnerships
